

Careers: Opportunities

DRA is always looking for qualified candidates for employment across our organization. Below is a list of our current job openings, however if you are interested in working at DRA and none of these are a fit for you, please submit your resume to Human Resources for consideration. You can be assured that we always maintain strict confidentiality.

Current Job Openings:

Asset Manager - Office

Asset Manager - Office

- Minimum of seven years Asset Management experience in office product required. Experience should include carrying out strategic goals at the property level through leasing and implementation/completion of capital improvements as well as completion of some development projects. Prior property management experience and managing due diligence processes are a “+.” Candidate must be a self starter with strong analytical and communication skills and have the ability to proactively recognize, investigate and communicate property level issues. Position entails working with the acquisition and disposition departments during the life of the asset. Position requires 25% travel. Position is located in New York City.

Submit Resume for this Position